Double W Dairy, Your Hosts

In the 1920's, Leroy Wailes started milking Brown Swiss cows on a rented farm in Milliken, Colorado, near Greeley. William Wailes, Sr., took over the farm in 1947 and moved to Johnstown. After a year or so, William sold some of the cows back to Leroy to provide for his family of eight children. Due to the growing herd, in 1970 the family purchased a farm in Kersey, Colorado. As the herd continued to grow, William relocated to Holyoke in 1978, where they currently reside. It was shortly after the move when William Wailes Sr. passed away leaving the farm to sons Marc and Gregg Wailes and daughter, Debbie Huwa with husband Glenn. The herd increased when Glenn, Gregg, and Marc made the decision to purchase more Brown Swiss cows. In the early 1990's, they bought the Elk Creek herd out of Nebraska, a good group of cows from the Nisly's in Kansas, and purchased good quality cattle from private sellers and Brown Swiss Sale Service.

For them, it is a matter of pride in ownership and satisfaction in following ancestry and bloodlines. Gregg is in his feed truck 365 days of the year, he maintains herd management and is really articulate when it comes to feeding cows. Marc's responsibility is fresh cows, herd health, reproduction and AI breeding of all heifers. Glenn also feeds cattle and is the mechanic that keeps everything running smoothly. Janel is the bookkeeper and spends many hours on the office computer.

Marc and Gregg have milked cows their whole lives. They have seen a lot of generations of cows and still love their Brown Swiss very much. They have been one of the longtime producers in the state of Colorado. Currently, they are milking over 700 registered Brown Swiss with over in 2,000 total, including heifers, making their herd the largest Brown Swiss herd in the United States.

Groups:

Groups will be sold first starting at 10:00am MST from Semi-Potloads to Stocktrailer loads.

Cattle will be sorted uniformly as to age, days in milk, and breed.

All uniform groups (lots) WILL BE GATE CUT... First come, first serve. TRUE GATE CUT.

Sale management will sort and load all cattle.

Groups of cows will be first to sell. The last group to be offered will be 10 Brown Swiss open heifers selected for type and pedigree.

Welcome everyone to Top Shelf Sale on the Plains. We thank you for your interest in our cattle.

We would like to recognize some friends who have helped and supported us over the years. Ben and Tena Cobb, Dave Sprengeler, Norm Magnussen, John Billing and Randy Knapp, and of course, our family, especially the guidance of our late brother Bill Wailes.

Lastly, a big thank you to Nate Goldenberg, Randy and Austin Knapp, Karen, Gabby and Frank Robinson. They all prepared for this sale in less-than-ideal conditions.

We also appreciate all the help we received from The National Brown Swiss Office.

We hope that the cows will perform beyond your expectations.

Thank you all again,
