

NATIONAL BROWN SWISS ASSOCIATION

2024 Youth Lease Agreement

The Youth Lease program encourages character, knowledge and sense of responsibility; increases participation in Brown Swiss Association programs and offers a unique opportunity for both non-farm and farm youth.

Agreement Guidelines

Recorded Owner of Registered Brown Swiss

Lessee of Registered Brown Swiss

Works with lessee to determine compensation for feed, vet, transportation and misc. expenses	Adheres to agreement with recorded owner for feed, transportation, vet and misc. expenses
Relinquishes animal to lessee for duration of the lease	Holds recorded owner harmless from injuries sustained due to working with leased animals
Holds lessee harmless from financial obligation incurred due to loss or injury of leased animals	Leased animal is eligible for junior show awards, but not entitled to open show production, genetic merit or breeder awards
Provides registration certificate photocopy to lessee for filing at the National Brown Swiss office	Not eligible for national youth award programs other than Bell Ringer
Maintains possession of registration certificate and responsibility for any open class show entries	To qualify for state or national Bell Ringer awards, must record leased animal at the National Brown Swiss office
Retains open show eligibility and ownership of any calf born from a breeding during lease duration.	Holds one-year lease agreement and provides $15 filing fee for each leased animal
May terminate lease early for due cause by notifying Executive Secretary and lessee	Verifies junior show eligibility with a copy of this lease agreement and the animal's registration certificate (stamped as a lease animal, indicating project year), received from the National Brown Swiss office

Terms & Conditions

- The lessee must be 8-21 years of age as of January 1 of the current year.
- Lease agreement must be processed at the National office prior to showing the leased animal/s.
- Leased animals will qualify for the National Bell Ringer Program, and junior show awards, but will not be eligible for open show awards.
- The animal's recorded owner will receive open show honors. An animal may be leased as a cow, if it has been leased continuously by the same youth prior to two years of age.
- Lessee can only lease one animal per class, per year.

This agreement will be valid when signed and recorded by the National Brown Swiss Association. The lessee will receive a copy of the agreement and a reference copy of the animal's registration certificate stamped as a lease animal and indicating the project year. Original Certificate will be returned to Recorded Owner with notation of leased animal and year.

It will be accepted by the National Brown Swiss Association for the lessee's participation in qualifying shows for the National Brown Swiss Bell Ringer Program and may be renewed for an additional project year upon receipt of a new agreement and $15 filing fee.
