A band of snow that started early sale morning covered Central Wisconsin leaving a foot of accumulation in its wake. While it discouraged some from attending, those that braved the blanket of white fluff were ready to buy.

The 67 head sold were purchased by 37 buyers from 8 states. 14 head found new homes via phone bids. The quality in this short notice sale was reflected in an outstanding average of $3204.76.

The sale headliner was the # 1 PPR (tie) cow in the Brown Swiss Breed Elm Park Hart Ameri Lady ET 2E91/92ms 3-0 365 3x 48,430 4.4 2,149 3.5 1,716. Lady was the wise purchase of Elm Park Farm, Ltd. Sheboygan Falls, WI, at the top price of $19,000. Lost Elm Farm and Ron Strauss were under bidders on this untapped contract cow.

Lady's influence impacted the runner up price of $9200 for Lot 37. A fancy Dynasty heifer due in April carrying a Vigor pregnancy from Lady. Her grandam is 2E91 with 37,750. After a spirited duel Ron Strauss, WI added a piece of the family to his herd.

The top selling open heifer also emerged from this high component family with Lot 6 peaking at $4000. Dr. Kenny Manion, KY was the successful bidder on this interesting 12/07 Scipio daughter of Lady.

Ed Hart of Loredo, MO is no stranger to this influential family having bred many great ones from Lady's grandam the "Edge" cow. He picked out Lot 21 a V88/90ms Denmark who was carrying the other Vigor pregnancy from Lady due in April for $6800. Mr. Hart also added a very correct Jr. 2 prospect to his list for $6100. Lot 4 who just happens to be an own daughter of Lady by Prstige bred to Vigor.

Lot 8 a potential 7th generation Excellent Dynasty 2yr from the Priscilla family brought $6000 from Ron Strauss. Hills Valley Dy Percept-ET V86/87ms, unfortunately was checked open at the sale but will go right on the flush program in Fredonia.

The Luttrupp's added Lot 15 a $5700 third generation Excellent Pronto due in March to Hart's Elevation to their Lost Elm herd at Berlin, WI.

Myron Turk Brooklyn, WI selected Lot 7 the V87/90ms Towpath Dynasty Lauren also open this 2yr. will be added to his embryo program. She has 7 Excellent dams right from the 5Ex Sup. Brood Cow, Vine Valley Paul Luann's family.
