

Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' Association
2019 Young Breeder Award

The Young Breeder Award recognizes an individual or member and spouse who have shown an expertise in dairy farming and Brown Swiss cattle breeding, participated in Association programs and events and held leadership roles in the community both in agricultural and non-agricultural organizations.

Guidelines: Candidate must not exceed 40 years of age as of January 1, 2019; be an active member for at least 5 years; have been nominated by a state officer, or in states with no association, by a five-year active national member. (There is no limit on number of entries from each state or district) Nominee must submit 6-8 photographs for use in national convention slideshow.

Selection: Selection Committee will consist of industry representatives who will rank nominees and assess points. The nominee with the lowest score will receive the Young Breeder Award. Ex: (1st Choice = 1 point, 2nd Choice = 2 points, 3rd Choice = 3 points, etc.) Individuals not chosen may be re-nominated in the future. Winners may not reapply.

Award: The winner will be recognized at the national annual meeting, be featured on the website and/or the Brown Swiss Bulletin and receive a plaque and free registration to convention activities not including lodging expenses.

Nominator: The person making the nomination must be a state association officer or a five-year active national member in states without an association and must write a short statement indicating why they feel the nominee should receive the award.
