Probably the first necessity of any constructive breeder is to establish in his own mind the type of cows he is aiming to produce.

The Swiss Capade of '39

"A few hours layover enroute. Enroute from Missoula, Montana, to Portland, the fieldmen traveling in the Rambler, caught up with the state herds in the yards at Pasco, Ore., around noon on Friday, Oct. 16. The herdsmen in charge, a very congenial group, are shown enjoying the beautiful day during a short layover. They and the herds they represent are left to right: Front Row - Bob Bradford, New England; Bernard Monson, Iowa; George Halmon, New England; Jim Thompson, Ohio; Dennis Lammers, Ohio. Left to right: standing - Fred Gauntt, Eastern Fieldman; Dale Homer, New England; Bill Miller, Ohio; Nelson McCammon, Wisconsin; Mike Bartrick, Ohio; Mark Jensen, New Jersey; Darrell Worden, Wisconsin; Gordon Vial, Iowa and Ed Behre III, New Jersey. The Illinois boys, Andy Clawson and Terry Ellis, were busy in their box car assisting a veterinarian in treating one of their animals." (taken from page 13, January 1960 Bulletin)
