REGULATIONS- READ CAREFULLY

1. All animals or embryos sold, in order that their progeny or resulting ET animals may be registered, must have their successive transfers duly recorded in the Association office and on the Certificate of Registry or Embryo Identification and signed by the Secretary of the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' Association of the U.S.A.
2. This application for Transfer must be accompanied by the Certificate of Registry or Embryo Identification in order that the transfer may be properly recorded. The seller shall furnish the purchaser with the Certificate of Registry or Embryo Identification on which the transfer has been recorded.
3. No animal can be transferred unless tattooed or permanently identified with double AIN tags. It is the responsibility of the seller to check the tattoo in the animal's ear or AIN tags to see that it corresponds with the tattoo or AIN on the Certificate of Registry before the animal leaves the seller's possession.
4. All animals sold for export to foreign countries must be transferred on the Association records before the animals leave the country.
5. All females bred when sold must show the service sire and date bred. A service certificate shall be provided if the owner of the animal was not the owner of the sire at the time of service.
6. The transfer fee shall be paid by the seller and must accompany the Application for Certificate of Transfer.
7. In transferring an entire herd of an estate to the heirs of said estate, the fee per animal is $7.00. When the ownership of an entire herd consisting of six (6) or more animals is transferred to a member of the immediate family or when a partnership is dissolved or a new partner is added, the per animal fee is $7.
8. Current fees are available from the National Office and can be found on www.brownswissusa.com.
9. Transfers may only be processed via submission of signed paper application with certificate of registry. Phone or online transfers are not accepted.
10. Signature of current owner must be provided. Any forged signatures will result in cancellation of the transfer request and animal will remain in current owner's name.
